

Parent Right to Know:

Yellville-Summit School District receives federal funds for Title I, Part A programs. Throughout the year, we will be providing you with information about this law as it relates to your child's education. This website posting lets you know about your right to request information regarding the professional qualifications of the classroom staff working with your child.

The district or school is able to provide you with the following information regarding the qualifications of your child's teacher(s) and paraprofessionals:

1. Whether the teacher meets the state qualifications and licensing criteria for the Grade(s) and subjects he or she teaches.
2. Whether the teacher is teaching under emergency or provisional status because of special circumstances.
3. Whether the teacher has any advanced degrees and the field of discipline of the teacher's certification or degree.
4. Whether the paraprofessional has completed at least two years of study at an institution of higher education.
5. Whether the paraprofessional has completed an associate's degree (or higher).
6. Whether the paraprofessional has met a rigorous standard of quality through our state's certification procedure for determining the quality of paraprofessional staff.
7. Whether the paraprofessional has: (a) the knowledge of and the ability to assist in instructing reading, writing, and mathematics or (b) the knowledge of and the ability to assist in learning activities, such as homework, reading readiness, writing, mathematics, and other support as appropriate.

The District will notify you if at any time your student has been or will be taught for four (4) or more consecutive weeks by a teacher or paraprofessional that is not highly qualified.

Should you have any questions regarding your child's education, please do not hesitate to contact us.
